Lighthouse Translations is a language service provider born from the need to provide quality document translations and interpretation services for conferences, meeting and trainings to a large multicultural network of clients, including private companies, government entities, NGO's, academic institutions, professional associations, meeting planners, production companies, and many more.

Our Services:

- Document Translation: A team composed of three translation professionals are assigned to each project- translator, editor, and proofreader. All three members work together to ensure the accuracy and appropriateness of each document.
- Remote Simultaneous Interpretation: We use advanced technology to help our interpreters listen and interpret for you at any event or meeting from a remote location.
- Remote Virtual Interpretation: We provide quality tech equipment where the professional interpreter is not required to be physically present.
- On-Site Translation / Interpretation: Accurate, professional, and culturally appropriate simultaneous and consecutive interpretation/translation services for all of your on-site live interpretation needs.
- Over the Phone / Telephonic Interpreting: With Lighthouse, you can have an effective call with anyone regardless of the location, and have language support either consecutively or simultaneously.
- Escort Interpretation: You will be best served by having an interpreter with you, physically by your side, whether you are having a site visit, training event or one-on-one meeting. Our interpreters help you navigate any communication barriers that may exist.
- Transcription: Transcripts that are tailored to the clients particular needs, meeting tight deadlines daily for demanding clients.
- Interpretation Equipment Rental: We offer an extensive inventory of products and services to facilitate the technical process of your event. Our specialists are ready to help you determine the products or services required for your meeting or event.

Our Philosophy:

Partnership: We see ourselves as a valued in-house member of your team. This has been achieved by establishing long lasting relationships based on trust and honest communication.

Commitment: Our entire team of qualified project managers and linguists are committed to maintaining the highest standards for excellence and making each client's need our top priority.

Value: We provide our clients with competitive rates and always strive to lower our clients' translations costs whenever possible.

Quality: We have an impeccable record of successful completion of more than 3,000 interpretation projects that involve logistics and project management and more than 1,500 translation projects that require a superior level of translation accuracy, all achieved through methodic quality control and quality assurance processes.

Convenience: Our team of professionals consistently work to ensure that your needs are met the way you want them.
